

Roanoke College, SALEM, VIRGINIA.

THIRTY-NINTH YEAR. Healthful Mountain Climate. Choice of Courses for Degrees: Commercial Department; Library 17,000 volumes; working Laboratory; good moral five churches. Expenses for 6 months $154 to $204 (board, fees, etc.). Increasing patronage from many States, India, Territory, Mexico and Japan. North Carolina well represented. Next session begins September 10th. Illustrated Catalogue and illustrated book about Salem free. Address: J. O. FOY, President.

SAVE LABOR

By buying a Self Rate Reaper for $50 from
F. & H. FRIES,
Wachovia Mills, Salem, N. C.

—A FIRST-CLASS—

BARBER SHOP.

SAMUEL BEVER, Prop'r.
Gentlemen who wish a First-Class Shave in a white man's shop should call on him. Everything neat and clean.

J. L. LUDLOW, C. E. M. S.,

Member N. C. Board of Health
Civil and Sanitary Engineer,
WINSTON, N. C.

Glenn & Manly, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

WINSTON, N. C.
Particular attention paid to settling estates and advising executors and administrators. Will practice regularly in the counties of Forsyth, Rockingham, Stokes, Surry and Watauga and in the United States Courts.

E. A. GRIFFITH, Attorney at Law and Notary Public.

(Office above Thompson's drug store.)
WILL PRACTICE in Forsyth and adjoining counties. Special attention given to the settlement of estates. All legal papers carefully drawn, titles investigated and abstracts furnished. Loans negotiated on good security. Special attention given to the collection of accounts and returns made promptly.

WANTED PER MONTH. One Hundred Watches to Repair.

Every fiftieth name on my watch repair record I will give one stem wind and set me watch, warranted a good time keeper.

All watches, clocks and jewelry promptly and neatly repaired and warranted.

A good assortment of watch chains and spectacles for sale.

T. J. BAXTER,
In Singer Office.

THE NEW EXCELSIOR COOK STOVE

IS THE BEST ON THE MARKET.

It is not a new and untried stove. It is used by thousands of the best people in North Carolina.
I have sold over 500 and never had a single complaint.
I can sell you this excellent stove as cheap as any good article on the market.
Tin roofing and guttering done promptly at low prices.
I am handling car loads of Terra Cotta Piping for drains and chimney flows. It makes a cheap, good chimney. Try it.

GEO. STEWART, Main Street, East of Court House,

BROWN'S PALACE DRUG-STORE

IN
The Hanes Building!

Offers everything in the drug line at low prices. The stock is large and varied and the quality of our goods cannot be surpassed.

We offer the finest line of domestic and foreign cigars ever shown in Winston.

We make wholesale prices to country merchants and others buying in large quantities.

Your friends,
BROWN & BROWN

THOMAS E. NASH

GENERAL

Commission Merchant.

Dealer in Eggs, Peanuts and all Country Produce.
509 CRAWFORD STREET,
PORTSMOUTH, VIRGINIA.

Consignments Solicited. Reference—Merchants and Farmers Bank.

Office of Administration.

HAVING QUALIFIED as administrator upon the estate of Chas. A. Snipes, deceased, notice is hereby given to all parties holding claims against said estate to present them to me for payment on or before the 20th day of April, 1892, or this notice will be placed in bar of their recovery, and all persons indebted to said estate are hereby notified to make payment at once.

ANNIE SNIPES,
Administratrix.

Waters & Burton, Attorneys,
April 20th, 1891.

FARMERS FURNITURE STORE.

BE SURE AND FIND IT

WHEN YOU

Come to Winston.

Next to Hinshaw & Medearis store, nearly opposite the Piedmont Warehouse

If you will go there to make your purchases you will find everything marked down to live and let live prices.

I have a nice line of furniture for you to select from.

The good as pretty and they are cheap.

Remember the place and Come and see me.

FARMERS FURNITURE STORE

W. T. VOGLER,

The Leading

JEWELER

OF WINSTON-SALEM,

Has the largest stock of Jewelry, Silverware, Clocks, Gold Pens, Walking Canes, Umbrellas, &c., in fact, everything that belongs to a Jeweler Store. His Spectacle Department is complete. If you need a pair of Spectacles you would do well by calling on him before buying elsewhere, as he is the only

PRACTICAL OPTICIAN

IN THE PLACE.

He is also prepared to do all kinds of Engraving, fancy and plain, and all styles of Monograms. He does all kinds of fine all work warranted.

REPAIRING

TO BE A NORTH CAROLINIAN.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission

Talked of.

WADDELL, GRAHAM OR ANDREWS?

North Carolina in the Pomological Convention—Other Washington City Matters.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The presence of Senator Ramsey and Major Charles M. Stetten in this city and a recent visit of Colonel A. B. Andrews has caused considerable talk. These gentlemen have kept very quiet and have not mentioned their plans, but it is believed that they have come to take a hand in naming the Southern man who shall be made Interstate Commerce Commissioner and that they are working for North Carolinian.

The lucky man shall be of course a matter of conjecture, but the more prominent names mentioned in connection with this big place are: Col. Alfred Waddell, Major William A. Graham, and perhaps some guessers say Col. Andrews himself. I don't think the latter gentleman would accept the position.

His great executive ability and influence and experience in railroad matters ought to induce him to remain where he is. It would be a good thing, however, for either one of the first mentioned gentlemen. The South has no able railroad man than Col. Andrews.

This afternoon the better part of the Pomological Convention was given to the State of North Carolina. The subjects treated were as follows:

"Small Fruit Growing in Eastern and Middle North Carolina," J. Van Lintley, Pomona, N. C., "Pomological resources of North Carolina," Prof. W. F. Massay, College of Agriculture, Raleigh, N. C., "Pear Blight and other Climate Influences," E. B. Leighton, Norfolk, Va., "The Rusted Butting System of Transplanted Trees," H. M. Stringfellow, Hitchcock, Tex., "Marketing Fruit," E. L. Martin, Sanford, Del., "Fruits of Western North Carolina," H. S. Williams, Rockledge, Fla.

Secretary Proctor's successor will not be announced until Congress meets. Secretary Grant in the meantime will be acting Secretary of War.

A Noted Belle to Marry.

The New York World says the latest topic in society is the engagement, announced last Saturday, of Miss Celeste Stauffer, of New Orleans, and Mr. George Agar. Miss Stauffer is probably the most widely-known young single woman in America. Her reputation as a belle, in fact, seems to extend all over the country. For several winters Miss Stauffer has been in town during the height of the season, and has been the recipient of great attentions at Patrick's and other balls. She has also had a constant succession of dinners and teas given in her honor. She is a daughter of Mr. Isaac H. Stauffer, of New Orleans. Mr. Stauffer, though a Pennsylvania by birth, has lived for years in the South, where his business interests originally led him.

The announcement of the engagement is a surprise to the fashionable world, for to late it has been rumored that she was to marry Mr. John H. Davis. The late Samuel J. Tilden left Miss Stauffer $100,000.

Eleven People Killed.

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—A dispatch from Gleiwitz, Prussian Silesia, states that a collision has occurred on the railroad connecting Golezow with Wolbrom, near the Russian frontier, between two passenger trains.

Four officials and seven passengers were killed and twenty passengers badly injured. The locomotives of both trains were under full steam at the time of the collision, and the crash when they came together was terrific. Both engines were reduced to shapeless masses of metal. Eight carriages were also wrecked.

The Fall of Fayetteville's Postmaster.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Sept. 24.—For constant and consistent neglect of his official duties as postmaster in Fayetteville, the bondsman of Mr. D. F. Wemyss has notified the Government and the Postmaster-General at Washington that they will no longer be responsible for his conduct and the administration of the affairs of the office in this city, and recommended Mr. W. P. Wemyss, the present assistant postmaster here.

Five Negroes Jailed for Murder.

STAUNTON, Va., Sept. 24.—Five negro men were jailed here to-day charged with killing James L. Lott, a white man, and seriously wounding Henry Weeks both white, in a row Saturday night at Mount Carmel Church, eighteen miles south of Staunton. Lott was shot through the body and Weeks was clubbed over the head. The evidence shows that the white men were in fault in the origin of the affair.

Charlotte's New Enterprise.

New enterprises are still springing up in Charlotte. The latest is the Southern Lubricating Oil Company, the articles incorporating which were filed with the clerk of the Superior court yesterday. The company has a capital stock of $25,000, divided into 100 shares of $250 each, and its business will be "dealing in oils and greases." The incorporators are Jas. F. Robinson, Thor. M. Dawson and Willis B. Dowd.—Charlotte News.

An Eastern Tobacco Market.

Tarboro N. C. has been opened as a tobacco market with great ceremony and military displays. Large sales took place on the day of the opening and buyers from other States were present. Tobacco men say the future for this market is very bright. Edgecomb is a good tobacco country as is Nash and other adjoining counties.

Koch's Lymph in Diagnosis.

A commission of the veterinary department of the University of Pennsylvania, which has been experimenting with Koch's lymph, reports that it is useless as a curative but of value for diagnosing the disease. The commission also reports that as it has been proved that consumption emanates from milk cattle, the government should order careful inspection of the milk and flesh of cattle of infected articles of food. The lymph may be used to determine the presence of tuberculosis in cattle, and those found suffering from the disease should be killed.

A Fortunate Refusal, Certainly.

A man named Tony Roberts, in Rockingham county, last week found one of his cows dead in the field. He said she had been killed by lightning and after dressing the beef carried it to Reidsville and offered it for sale. No one would buy and on his return rather than haul it home he threw the meat out of his wagon a mile from town. Later some dogs found it and made a supper on it. The Madison News says every dog that ate of the beef died in a few hours, and an examination by a physician proved that the cow died from poison.

Death of Senator Butler's Daughter.

Miss Elsie Butler, the youngest daughter of United States Senator M. C. Butler, died of nervous prostration at the Highlands, N. Y., Monday, after a very short illness. Miss Butler was a special favorite at the National Capital. Gen. Butler did not know of his daughter's illness until Sunday, when he reached her side. The remains will be taken to Edgefield, S. C., for interment.

The E. E. Conference.

The Western M. E. Conference meets at Asheville on November 1st, while the North Carolina Conference assembles at Greenville on November 23rd.

A DELIBERATE SUICIDE.

A Charleston Lady Grows Desperate—Her Husband in North Carolina.

A Charleston, S. C., special of last week says: Mrs. P. N. Gorse, a well-known, popular lady of this city, committed suicide last week by hanging herself in the kitchen of her niece's house on Pitt street. Mrs. Gorse was unhappy in her marital relations, and on the first of July last they agreed to a separation. Mr. Gorse went to a North Carolina resort for the summer, and is still absent from the city, while his wife went to live with her niece on Pitt street.

Mrs. Gorse, who was about forty-five years of age, was affected by her separation from her husband, and continued to brood over her trouble, despite the efforts of her friends to convince her that she was not so unfortunate as she thought. Yesterday afternoon she was missed by her niece from her room, and on searching the house her body was found in the kitchen suspended by a short piece of clothes line, one end of which was tied about her neck and the other fastened to the wall. It was a deliberate and coolly executed suicide as ever occurred in this city. Mrs. Gorse was worth between forty and fifty thousand dollars.

Working for Mrs. Maybrick's Paragon.

A Bar Harbor special says that the case of Mrs. Maybrick, accused of poisoning her husband in England and sentenced to penal servitude for life, was some time ago brought to the attention of Mrs. Blaine, and she together with Secretary Blaine, has become deeply interested in it. Mrs. Blaine has been for many months constantly in receipt of letters urging her to use her influence with the Secretary of State and induce him to communicate with Lord Salisbury in the matter. Mrs. Blaine has done, and is doing all in her power to do while Secretary Blaine has given much time and thought to the case. About two weeks ago a petition for Mrs. Maybrick's pardon, signed by Mrs. Harrison and the wives of the members of the cabinet, was sent to Minister Lincoln for presentation to the Queen.

North Carolina's Confederate Veterans.

Mr. J. S. Carr, president, has issued a call saying: "The Confederate Veterans' Association of North Carolina will hold its annual meeting in Raleigh on Thursday, October 15. Every veteran is earnestly invited to attend. It is hoped that every North Carolina regiment will be represented. A flag for each brigade of cavalry and infantry and battalion of artillery has been prepared for the occasion. The meeting will be called to order at 11 o'clock a. m., sharp, in the grand stand at the exposition grounds. After the annual election of officers short addresses will be delivered by the Governor and distinguished ex-soldiers. At 12 o'clock there will be a grand review and parade."

The Coming Man.

The coming man will be bald, says the London Lancet, and it holds the Derby and the stiff silk hat or beaver responsible for the disfigurement of man. These kinds of headgear cannot be displaced. They will stay on the head of the coming man, and he will be bald. Dr. Turner, an eminent English dentist, states that our teeth are fast deteriorating. The time, it seems, is not far removed when civilized man will be toothless. Bald and toothless will be a pretty sight to see! The present man ought to be appreciated by the ladies. He is more amenable to discipline as well as handsome than his successor will be. The coming man will be bald, says the London Lancet, and it holds the Derby and the stiff silk hat or beaver responsible for the disfigurement of man. These kinds of headgear cannot be displaced. They will stay on the head of the coming man, and he will be bald. Dr. Turner, an eminent English dentist, states that our teeth are fast deteriorating. The time, it seems, is not far removed when civilized man will be toothless. Bald and toothless will be a pretty sight to see! The present man ought to be appreciated by the ladies. He is more amenable to discipline as well as handsome than his successor will be. The coming man will be bald, says the London Lancet, and it holds the Derby and the stiff silk hat or beaver responsible for the disfigurement of man. These kinds of headgear cannot be displaced. They will stay on the head of the coming man, and he will be bald. Dr. Turner, an eminent English dentist, states that our teeth are fast deteriorating. The time, it seems, is not far removed when civilized man will be toothless. Bald and toothless will be a pretty sight to see! The present man ought to be appreciated by the ladies. He is more amenable to discipline as well as handsome than his successor will be.

The National Liquor Bill.

It costs something to live and a good deal to die; in fact, everything costs, says a bright exchange. Some one estimates that the cost of living to the people of the United States $250,000,000, annually getting married $300,000,000, and getting buried $75,000,000. It might be added getting drunk cost the people of the United States more than $200,000,000 annually, or over one and one-half times as much as getting born, married, and buried put together, and more than all the bread and meat consumed in the nation.—Philadelphia Item.

A Remarkable Occurrence.

Certain Catholic circles of Louisville are terribly excited over a remarkable occurrence. Mary Subenbourg, a member of the Cathedral congregation, has been ill for some time. Recently it has been noticed that she becomes much worse on Fridays and that bright red spots appear in the palm of her hands, on her feet and over her heart. They are called "bleeding spots," and are typical of the wounds inflicted on the body of Christ.

Will Sam and the Circus Collide?

Sam Jones' meetings will begin in Wilmington on October 10th. No definite date has yet been set for the Charlotte meetings, but they will probably commence in the first week in November. Some people have an idea, though, that Sam will arrange his date so as to have a collision here with the circus. Just to see how the experiment would work. Charlotte wouldn't mind having Mr. Jones and Mr. Forepaugh here at one and the same time.—Charlotte News.

Lillian Gould a Lunatic.

Mrs. L. M. Gould, of Murphy, N. C., noted for killing her husband, was Monday night sent to the insane asylum at Knoxville, Tenn. She has been in Knoxville for some days and created quite a sensation by her attempts to kiss several men the first day she was there, of which mention was made in these columns. The woman has been eating opium, and a reputable physician made affidavit that she was insane. Pending an inquiry of lunacy she was committed to the lunatic asylum.

Senator Ramsey's Version.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24.—Senator Ramsey has arrived in Washington, from North Carolina, where the Farmers' Alliance is particularly active. He says that the alliance does not threaten the democratic party, and that the fight is merely between two factions of the party for supremacy. What the alliance faction is fighting for in North Carolina, he says, is to get control of the party, not to destroy it.

"DEACON" WHITE'S CAREER.

The Great Metropolitan Grain Merchant a North Carolinian.

The assignment of S. V. White & Co., in New York Tuesday caused great surprise as the firm was considered the richest and most prosperous in the country. The failure was in part due to New York and Chicago, alike, as most of the grain merchants were dependent upon this leading firm for support. It is not generally known perhaps that Stephen V. White was born in Chatham county, North Carolina, on August 1, 1831. His father belonged to a Pennsylvania Quaker family which moved South just after the Revolution, and his mother was a member of one of the oldest families of his native State. Anti-slavery sentiments caused his father to remove from North Carolina a few weeks after the birth of this son, and he settled in what is now the State of Illinois. S. V. White passed the first 18 years of his life on his father's farm, and earned his first money by the sale of the skins of wild animals which he trapped. In 1849, being assisted by an elder brother, he began to prepare himself to enter Knox College, Illinois, from which he was graduated in 1854. Then he went to St. Louis, where, after working for a few months as a bookkeeper, he studied law in the office of B. Grant Brown and John A. Kasson, and was admitted to the bar.

English Railway Rates.

For five years a department of the British government and various commissions have been working at the problem of regulating and perhaps reducing English railway rates. At length some sort of conclusion has been reached, the precise effect of which nobody professes to understand fully. Two things, however, are clear. There are to be certain maximum rates which the companies may not exceed, and foreign freight is not to be carried at lower rates than local freight. Justice demands these reforms. We have not yet in this country seen maximum rates, but we have made some progress in stopping discrimination by the companies in favor of the foreigner. As freight rates are steadily clearing there are to be no more than formerly, thanks to the activity of our interstate commerce commission.—Ex.

The Boy is Father of the Man.

A charming poem of the moment informs us that the boy who kisses his mother is every inch a man. It is greatly to be feared that the lumbies are here no less impregnable than the truth. The boy who kisses his mother before or after going swimming on Sunday, steals a coxing arm round the dear old neck and beguiles her into believing him a good and trustworthy son, whereas he is only a mischievous little hypocritical rascal, will when he grows up kiss his wife with his great fondness on lodge night—and call her pet names, too, the villain. The boy is father of the man, and there's a good deal in that.

In the Front Ranks.

Rev. E. C. Branson in a correspondence from Cartersville, Ga. speaking of the sermon preached by Rev. W. S. Creasy, of Wilmington, at that place in aiding Rev. Sam Jones says: "Our Brother Creasy, of Wilmington, preached the sermon of the morning—and a capital sermon, too, one of the very best ever preached here, they say. He is very superior to any other man upon the platform to-day evidently."

Death of Senator Butler's Daughter.

Miss Elsie Butler, the youngest daughter of United States Senator M. C. Butler, died of nervous prostration at the Highlands, N. Y., Monday, after a very short illness. Miss Butler was a special favorite at the National Capital. Gen. Butler did not know of his daughter's illness until Sunday, when he reached her side. The remains will be taken to Edgefield, S. C., for interment.

The E. E. Conference.

The Western M. E. Conference meets at Asheville on November 1st, while the North Carolina Conference assembles at Greenville on November 23rd.

THE BRIDGE DISASTER.

Still Arresting Suspected Wreckers

The Danville Register claims to have private information that day before yesterday detectives employed by the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company arrested at Newton, N. C., twelve miles west of Statesville, a white man who is believed to be the person who wrecked the railroad bridge on the Western North Carolina Railway, and caused the horrible disaster, the details of which are still fresh in the minds of the public.

The detectives were very secret in their work, and refused to give the name of the man arrested. It is alleged that the club leading to his arrest was the fact that he offered for sale at an insignificant price, a diamond scarf pin known to have been the property of one of the persons killed in the wreck. It is also said that the prisoner let fall remarks showing that he was implicated in the fearful crime of wrecking the train.

Michigan's Big Peach Crop.

This has been a great peach year in Michigan as well as on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Last week from 100,000 to 150,000 baskets per day were received at Chicago, and the busy season is expected to continue for a month longer. Choice fruits are bringing $1.75 and $2 per bushel, but prices are expected to fall when the late fruit comes in. The Chicago market cannot be expected to put up much fruit, owing to its abundance in the East. One of them is quoted as saying: "We are not eating many peaches this year, because they are too cheap. You see, they are also cheap in Maryland and Delaware. That spoils our market. If peaches were scarce over there this year we would eat all we could get hold of. As it is, we will probably not eat more than 10,000 bushels altogether."

Mr. Blaine Will Not Run.

A Washington special to the Mail and Express, says: Mr. Blaine soon after the first of the new year, will notify his friends that, under no circumstances, could he accept the nomination for the presidency, and that he is for the great majority of Harrison. This information is given to the Mail and Express by a man whose name is national, and who is a friend of Harrison and Blaine. He has charge of the New York Times, President, and has the fullest confidence of both parties. Mr. Blaine will return to Washington in October in good shape for work.

The National Liquor Bill.

It costs something to live and a good deal to die; in fact, everything costs, says a bright exchange. Some one estimates that the cost of living to the people of the United States $250,000,000, annually getting married $300,000,000, and getting buried $75,000,000. It might be added getting drunk cost the people of the United States more than $200,000,000 annually, or over one and one-half times as much as getting born, married, and buried put together, and more than all the bread and meat consumed in the nation.—Philadelphia Item.

A Remarkable Occurrence.

Certain Catholic circles of Louisville are terribly excited over a remarkable occurrence. Mary Subenbourg, a member of the Cathedral congregation, has been ill for some time. Recently it has been noticed that she becomes much worse on Fridays and that bright red spots appear in the palm of her hands, on her feet and over her heart. They are called "bleeding spots," and are typical of the wounds inflicted on the body of Christ.

Will Sam and the Circus Collide?

Sam Jones' meetings will begin in Wilmington on October 10th. No definite date has yet been set for the Charlotte meetings, but they will probably commence in the first week in November. Some people have an idea, though, that Sam will arrange his date so as to have a collision here with the circus. Just to see how the experiment would work. Charlotte wouldn't mind having Mr. Jones and Mr. Forepaugh here at one and the same time.—Charlotte News.

Lillian Gould a Lunatic.

Mrs. L. M. Gould, of Murphy, N. C., noted for killing her husband, was Monday night sent to the insane asylum at Knoxville, Tenn. She has been in Knoxville for some days and created quite a sensation by her attempts to kiss several men the first day she was there, of which mention was made in these columns. The woman has been eating opium, and a reputable physician made affidavit that she was insane. Pending an inquiry of lunacy she was committed to the lunatic asylum.

Senator Ramsey's Version.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24.—Senator Ramsey has arrived in Washington, from North Carolina, where the Farmers' Alliance is particularly active. He says that the alliance does not threaten the democratic party, and that the fight is merely between two factions of the party for supremacy. What the alliance faction is fighting for in North Carolina, he says, is to get control of the party, not to destroy it.

GENERAL NEWS.

An earthquake was felt at Messina, Sicily, yesterday.

The English Government has officially recognized the Provisional Government of Chili.

The Order of Railway Telegraphers and Brotherhood of Telegraphers in Chicago were amalgamated Monday night.

Fifteen dead and thirty injured have been extracted from the debris caused by the railroad collision at Burgos, Spain.

Mr. Abe Strauss formerly of this city is now with the Drummond Tobacco Co., of St. Louis in the capacity of Salesman.

Wallace T. Dudley, one of the leading citizens of Asbury Park, N. Y., and the proprietor of the Dudley House, died yesterday, aged 67.

The civil marriage of Miss Jennie Urquhart, sister of Mrs. James Brown Potter, to M. Rene Duval will take place in Paris to-day.

The Hon. Harvey Watterson, father of the editor of the Courier-Journal, is lying at the point of death at his son's residence in Louisville.

The chemical works of Goldsmith & Parsons, on Jay street, Brooklyn, were partially destroyed by fire yesterday morning. The loss will not exceed $22,000.

Evangelist Fife will begin a series of meetings at Lumberton next Sunday. The Robesonian reports extensive preparations for the Evangelist by the people of that town.

The boiler of Berlin's new saw-mill at Bear Creek, Pa., exploded yesterday morning, completely demolishing the mill, and instantly killing three men.

The American Waltham Watch Company has announced a reduction of 15 to 20 per cent in the wages of 900 of its employees, or about those employed on its sixteen-size movements.

Fire at Fort Worth, Tex., yesterday, destroyed the Ellis hotel, a five-story annex, together with the contents, valued at $130,000. Total loss, $150,000; insurance, $22,000.

It seems that Miss Washburn has started out to fill the role in which she was best fitted, or that, at least, what those who saw her in lights in Baltimore Monday night.

General Joseph F. Knapp, president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, of New York, died Monday last aboard the French steamer Champagne, which arrived in New York to-day.

This is California's banner year for fruit, and what seems to be the inevitable reverse of the medal is shown in Spain. It is said that this season's crop of Almeria grapes will be only 600,000 barrels, or about 25 per cent below last year's crop.

Net cash balance in the treasury yesterday was $43,745,458. Of this amount $17,745,220 is deposited in subsidiary coin; $13,599,240 is deposited in national bank depositories and $46,833 in minor coin and fractional currency.